Congratulations Rangers!

Ranger of the Year Awards

Back: Ryan Reed, Daniel Tipton, Zach Tipton
 Front: Quinton Hildebrandt, Joseph Pingleton

The 2009 annual District Royal Ranger of the Year evaluation was held at the Southern Missouri District Royal Ranger Campgrounds on October 23-24, 2009. The evaluation covers the various merits and work they have completed during the past year in the weekly Outpost meeting. This year, Quinton Hildebrandt from Victory Church in St. Clair placed first in the Discovery age group. Joseph Pingleton from Tri-Lakes in Branson ranked in first place in the Adventure age group. Ryan Reed from Bolivar First Assembly was the Expedition Ranger of the Year and received a $250 scholarship to the college of his choice. Also, Zach Tipton qualified for the District Adventure of the Year, and Daniel Tipton qualified for District Expedition Ranger of the Year. Both of these boys are from Praise Fellowship in St. Louis.

Gold Medal Of Achievement Awarded

The Gold Medal of Achievement is the highest award that a boy may earn in the Royal Ranger Ministry. The GMA was presented to Zachary Hood, Cody Hood & William Grauberger at First Assembly of God in Raytown on September 13. These 3 boys made a total of 24 boys who have received the Gold Medal of Achievement at First A/G in Raytown. Keith Coulter, Senior Commander has been instrumental in working with all of these boys to help them achieve the Gold Medal. Keith was presented the District Outstanding Service Award for his efforts in working with the 24 boys.

Special Training on Friday

Ranger Basics - $20.00

The new, Ranger Essentials - $20.00

First Aid/CPR - $25.00

Other LTA Modules - $10.00 each

Plan to be a part of the fifteenth annual conference. The purpose of this conference is for the leaders to receive additional training, learn some new ideas, enjoy some good Christian fun and fellowship and above all receive a "Spiritual Uplift". There will be lots of information to take home that will help the leader to be better organized and successful.

You will enjoy this conference and will go home encouraged to reach more boys for Christ. It will be worth your time and money! The General Business Session on Saturday morning will be a time to discuss and make plans for the various activities held in the District like Pow Wow, FCF Outings, etc. Also, we will have a report from the National Royal Ranger Office on the upcoming changes in the Royal Ranger Ministry.

Free to Pastors: The Rangers Basic Training Course which is part of the Royal Ranger Leadership Training Course will be held all day on Friday.
