

2011 LFTL BANQUET TOUR

During the recent Light for the Lost tour, individuals from across our great district were challenged to make faith promises for the purchase of evangelism tools to be placed in the hands of our missionaries. LFTL funds are critical to the effectiveness of many of our missionaries. These monies are the primary source of providing much needed evangelism tools such as tracts, bibles and electronic media. Faith promises for 2011 are just shy of the $300,000 mark.

Guest speakers included: Cecil Culbreth, Terry Castleberry, Rick Allen, John Bueno and David Raley. Our speakers were anointed of God as they shared the importance and the results of the great work of Light for the Lost.

Project 10 Million, a plan to reach ten million souls during the next ten years, is the district project for LFTL Councilmen in 2011.

Those who attended enjoyed a time of fellowship and, as always, the excellent food prepared by our LFTL Cook Teams.

All churches are encouraged to be a part of this essential ministry.

If your church has not yet made a commitment to support LFTL, we encourage you to do so. You can make a pledge/contribution by contacting the Men's Department at the Southern Missouri District.

J.W. Laycock has served as the LFTL coordinator and Steak Cook Team captain for the NE Region since the late 1980's. He just turned 75 and is faithfully committed to the LFTL ministry. He is an active member of Trinity Tabernacle Assembly of God in Bridgeton.
